

12 - 22 Langston Place Epping NSW

Developed by Cbus Property, The Langston brings together one of Australia's most awarded and trusted integrated property developers with some of the leading property specialists in the country. With a goal of re-imagining apartment living that goes beyond the walls of each apartment, Cbus Property and the project team are focused on creating a vibrant, welcoming community, where residents are connected to each other and wider Sydney.

Led by Cbus Property, the project team delivers excellence on every level.

The appointed contractor, Hutchinson Builders, Australia's largest privately owned construction company, is on track to deliver these stunning apartments, as well as the unmatched residential amenity and public domain, which will bring Epping to life in a never-before-seen way.
