

Driftway Drive Pemulwuy NSW

Masterplanned design, superior location and high quality construction combine in Western Sydney's spectacular new community, Parade. Located only 30 kilometres west of the CBD, 11km from Parramatta and home to Prospect Hill - the highest point between the Blue Mountains and Sydney, Pemulwuy represents the peak of modern living.

Elevated amongst 44 hectares of parklands and neighbored by the vast lake and picturesque terrains of Prospect Hill, Parade experiences the best of both worlds - an incredible sense of tranquility, alongside supreme conveniences, services, and all the touches of a Metro home. This is just the beautiful beginning of a lifelong adventure.

Named after a prominent Aboriginal warrior, Pemulwuy is a district steeped in national history and cultural legacy.
